

There was an little girl named Amy, she was locked in a house every day by her mother, lost her freedom and happiness, finally, because of the mother's abuse and chose to commit suicide. Because of Amy's suicide, the house was filled with resentment and was called the horrible house . Players need to escape the room to find the truth about Amy's death. First, players enter Amy's bedroom, where they can find two mangled pieces of paper on the bed and in the bathroom. Players put the two pieces of paper together to form a note. Next, open the bedside table, the first drawer and the player will find a roll of tape. The second drawer is locked and needs a key to open it. Then open the third drawer and the player find the third paper ball. The player should Combine the three pieces to get a complete staff. There is a mirror in the room .When the player look in the mirror, the player will see a ghost. Then, clicking the comb, filling in the staff according to the clues on the paper, and the player can get a key. Using this key to open the second drawer and the player will get a knife which is Amy used to kill herself. Next, the player go to the window. They will see a hand by the window. Using this knife to stab this hand, Then the player will get a clue. This is a telephone number. Unfortunately, there is no telephone wire, the player need to find it. And the player will see a balance on the table, they can move the weight to keep the balance. By observing the patterns on the weights, they can draw the following conclusions. The pattern corresponds to the number. Get password 3531. Then open this safety box. The player will get a broken telephone line. Next, the player once found a roll of tape in the first drawer. Please use this tape to stick up the broken telephone line. Then connect the telephone line to the phone. Carefully observing the flags on the wall and find that two flags are different. Get the numbers 1 and 2.

Filling the numbers in the blanks of the previously obtained paper. The palyer will get a full phone number. Dialing this number and they will hear a horrible voice on the phone repeating the word "freedom". Typing the word "freedom" on the computer. The player will get the story about someone who used to live in this room. At this time, the computer will appear Amy's sad story, her pain and her resentment as well as the password of the door lock : 1213. Finally, the player should enter "1213" to open the door and escape the room. Congratulations!