

Student Support

Dr. Tamaryn Menneer

Dr. Jacob Juhl

psy-support-ug@soton.ac.uk

Points of contact

Personal academic tutor / Module lecturer

- first point of contact is your personal academic tutor or the module lecturer

Student mentor

- undergraduate student to help you

Directors of Student Support

- Me and Jacob Juhl
- support for all Psychology students
- can advise on Student Support Services outside of Psychology

Missing compulsory sessions

- Registers are taken in compulsory sessions.
- Missing sessions: email warnings, mark capped at 40% after three unauthorised absences.
- The form for absence is available in the Undergraduate Handbook.

Special Considerations

- Tell us of anything that might be affecting your studies as soon as possible.
  - Discuss with your mentor, tutor, me or Jacob.
- A form is available in the Undergraduate Handbook.
  - Fill in dates, the modules that have been affected, and a brief description.
- They are considered at the end of each exam period.

Outside of Psychology: Student Services Centre (George Thomas building)

Support for practical issues

- accommodation
- financial
- visa
- careers
- ID cards

Pastoral care and Educational support

- First support
- Residences support
- Enabling services
  - counselling
  - mentoring
  - disability
  - dyslexia

More information

- Undergraduate Handbook
  - through eFolio
- Personal academic tutor
- Student mentor
- Directors of student support
- Each other