Finding what's available in the Library

Use DelphiS
or WebCat

The screenshot displays the SUSSED website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with tabs for Home, Services, News, Email, Students, Researchers, Notices, School, My Home, Library, Faculty, and Resources. The 'Library' tab is selected. Below the navigation bar, a 'Library Links' section features a grid of 24 icons representing various services: WebCat, DelphiS, Getting Started, Library Group Study Rooms, Subject Guides, Opening Hours, 24 Hour Opening, LibGuides, Off Campus e-access, Past Exam Papers, Resources, Academic Skills, InfoSkills, Services/Sites, Enquiries/Feedback, and FAQ. A 'Chat' window is open on the right side, with a text input field and a 'Type here to chat. Press ENTER to send.' prompt. Below the chat window, there is a 'Twitter' section showing a tweet from SotonUniServiceLine (@UoS_ServiceLine) with the text 'We're currently experiencing issues'. The bottom of the page includes a 'News' section with the text 'News about the University Library, its services and resources' and the University of Southampton logo.

Getting connected in the Library

Laptop and wireless access

Network plugin points

iSolutions
work stations

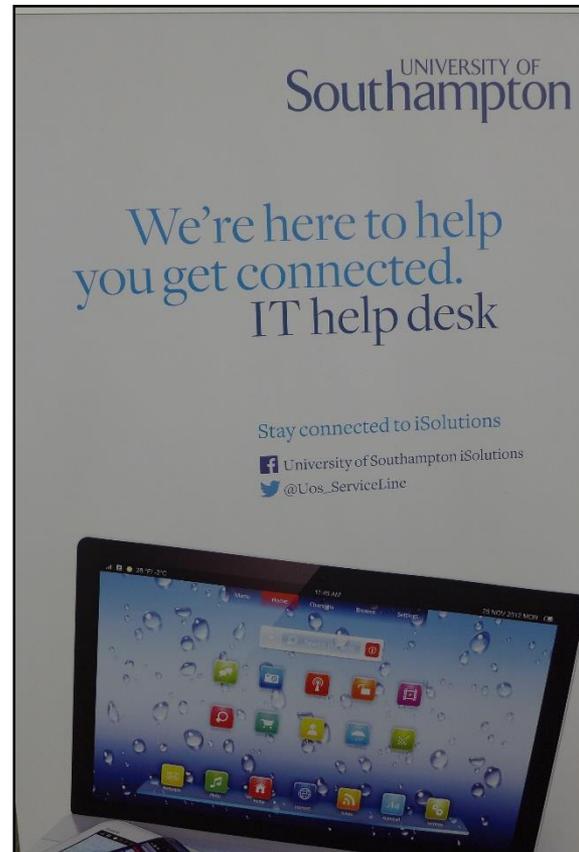

Laptop loans

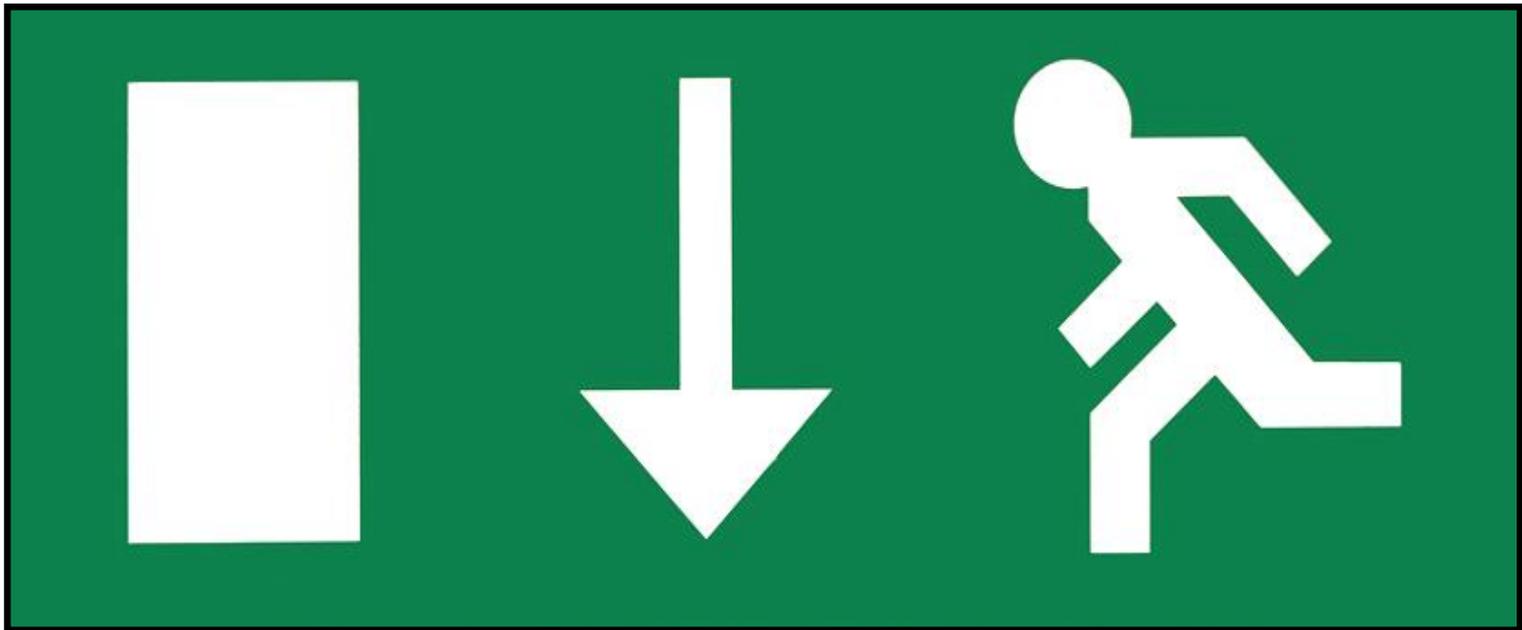

Where to go for help

Level 2 desk:

Library
enquiries

Fire alarms

We have a Group Project to work on. Is there somewhere in the Library
we can work and talk?

Group study rooms – Levels 1, 2, 3 and 5
Bookings online

I've got some Reading Lists and I need to borrow the books from the Library. How many can I borrow at one time?

15

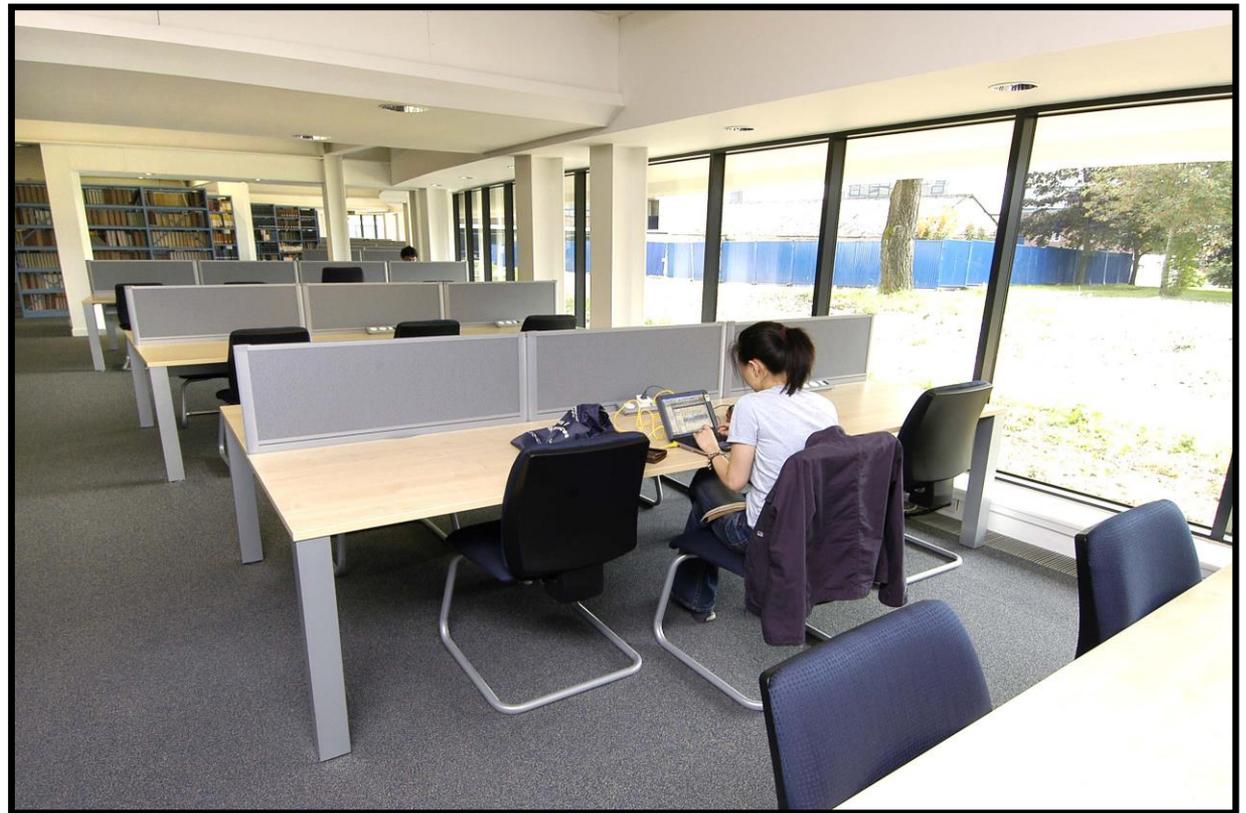

How can I access the internet in the Library without having my own laptop?

Level 2: iSolutions workstations

But I do have a laptop!

Laptop,
wireless access
and network
plug-in points
are available all over the Library.
iSolutions
workstations
can be used to access the internet

I don't think I will remember any of this next week. Where can I get help when I need it?

When you enter the Library:

Library queries and directions at the Level 2
desk

What referencing style do I need to use for my assignments?

Welcome

The University Library supports all members of the University across every campus. We're here to provide you with the resources and training that will enable you to find and make best use of the information available to you.

Across these guides you'll find information about our sites, services and collections. You'll also find guides for every subject studied and researched across the University - and you'll find guides that help you learn how to use our resources more effectively.

If you need help at any point, use our enquiry services - we're available in person in the library, but also via email, telephone and our live webchat service.
